TALENT AMERICA

RULES & REGULATIONS

The Talent America Program established in 1973, is a competitive, educational and vocational experience designed to showcase undiscovered talent of all types and ages through competition, guidance and promotion. Qualified judges are available to advise contestants.

AT TALENT AMERICA PRELIMINARIES you can perform as many times as you wish in SOLO and/or GROUP categories. Time is limited to up to 1 minute for Models and 3 minutes for Solo or Group Acts. Division IV Groups (20 or more person production) will be allowed up to four minutes. Six minute productions at $30.00 per contestant will be considered.

All finalists will be eligible for the Talent America "Talent of the Year" Awards National Finals and will be invited to present their talent at the National Finals of Talent America at their own expense.

AT THE NATIONAL FINALS you will be permitted to perform as a Model once, as a Soloist once and up to twice in each group Division #'s 1-5 presenting your qualifying act(s).

MODELS will be judged in four age divisions: child, youth, teen and adult, in male and female categories.

TALENT SOLOS will be judged in four age divisions: child, youth teen and adult, in male and female categories.

GROUPS will be judged in 4 age divisions. Age group categories will be determined by majority age of contestants in each division (not average age).

DIVISION I: 2, 3, or 4 contestants

DIVISION II: 5, 6, 7, OR 8 CONTESTANTS

DIVISION III: 9 through 19 contestants

DIVISION IV: 20 or more contestants

This production Division will be allowed up to four minutes. (Six minutes at $30.00 per contestant will be considered. Please contact the home office for approval).

Judges for the National program have included Violet Holmes (Rockette choreographer) and representatives from modeling and casting agencies, television, management firms, show business, recording and entertainment fields.
